Where Do We Go From Here? 1967 - Present Day

What progress has been made in the twentieth century in the fight to realize Founding principles of liberty, equality, and justice for African Americans? What work must still be done?

- □ I can interpret primary sources related to Founding principles of liberty, equality, and justice in the 1960s to the present day.
- □ I can explain how laws and policy, courts, and individuals and groups contributed to or pushed back against the quest for liberty, equality, and justice for African Americans.
- □ I can explain why the civil rights movement fractured in the 1960s.
- □ I can compare movements for liberty, equality, and justice for African Americans over time.
- □ I can create an argument using evidence from primary sources.
- □ I can analyze issues in history to help find solutions to present-day challenges.
