

Student Self-Assessment

Handout I

Directions: Use the scale given by your teacher to complete the self-assessment below. Remember to evaluate yourself honestly.

Category	Self-assessment
I can define immigration and industrialization. I did this throughout the lesson.
I can identify and label a map of the world. I did this in the Anticipate Activity.
I can analyze primary source images. I did this in the Engage Activity.
I can write a script to convey information. I did this in formative assessment #1 and my summative assessment.
I can record an informational podcast or short-form video. I did this in my summative assessment.

I can analyze and draw conclusions from data in the form of tables, graphs, and maps.

I did this in Explore #3.

Give examples here:

I can give examples of courage and natural rights.

I did this throughout the lesson.

Give definitions here:

Directions: Based on your reflections, set some targets for your next lesson. Write one goal and one thing you want to remember. Samples are provided as an example.

My goal

*In my next social studies lesson,
I will focus on learning important vocabulary.*

One thing I want to remember is...

I want to remember the story of the Lowell Girls.