2024-25 TEACHER FELLOWSHIP

The Teacher Fellowship is a 9-month initiative aimed at empowering educators to deepen their understanding of civics and civic education through philosophical inquiry and innovative teaching methods. Participants will engage in professional development, philosophical discussions, curriculum development, and community engagement to promote reflective commitment to civil society among students.

The inaugural cohort (2024-2025) will be a competitively selected group of 15 master educators from around the country.

Frequently Asked Questions

Who is eligible to apply for the Fellowship?
Educators must have at least one year of classroom experience and educators must be teaching in a social studies role during their participation in the Fellowship. Experience using BRI curriculum and resources and attending BRI programming is preferred.

How will meetings occur?
The monthly meeting will be the first Tuesday of every month at 8:30 ET on an online platform such as Zoom.

Is there an in-person portion of the programming?
No, the program is completely virtual.

What is the compensation?
Teachers will be compensated quarterly in $500 increments. Total compensation will be $2,000 for participation in the Fellowship. Payment is contingent upon the successful completion of responsibilities agreed to in the Letter of Agreement that will be provided to accepted teachers.

What is the term of commitment?
The term of the Fellowship is September 1, 2024-May 31, 2025.

APPLY TO BE A PART OF THE INAUGURAL COHORT! mybri.org/teacherfellowship

APPLICATION DEADLINE JUNE 1, 2024